Verse

She occupies the night
Even when it's bright out
Night out time out never a break
She possesses my mind
Hey!
We almost lose control
But then she slips through the bedroom door
Disappears every day leaving me alone.

Pre Chorus

And my hands are cold
Cuz they're not holding yours
I'm remembering every single kiss that we exchanged, yeah...
Now we're getting closer
But we can't get a hold of each other
Cuz there's someone else.
Someone else.

Chorus

Let's not talk for six days
And forget the mistakes
We made. We made.
Let's not talk for six days
And forget the mistakes
We made. We made.

Verse

Oh, now she seems so distant
But I miss her and it's that bad.
I've been longing for us to...uh.
And I know we aren't meant to touch
But she keeps triggering all these thoughts

And I'm losing it it's getting rough
Cuz it feels like love.

Pre Chorus

Ooh my hands are cold
Cuz they're not holding yours
I'm remembering every single kiss that we exchanged, yeah...
Yeah, yeah we're getting closer
But we can't get a hold of each other
Cuz there's someone else. Who!

Bridge

Oooh it's love (this is love this is love)
Oooh it's love (this is love this is love)
Oooh!
